Two women, who in this day are considered saints, lived a not so holy life at the beginning of their way. The better known of the two is Mary Magdalene.

The other woman was an entertaining dancer who became the highly influential empress of the Byzantine Empire. She is known today as Saint Theodora, of the Eastern Orthodox Church...

Here is the gripping, even suspenseful, story of Lili, a prostitute from modern day Jaffa, as told by an likely passer-by, an ascetic by the named Adon.

When Adon meets Lili, she is in a sack, tied, gagged and a blade posed at her neck.

It is a razor-sharp story of love and Spirituality, set against the raw and vibrant human landscape of Jaffa. A stark and riveting account of the human experience in its many moving parts.

A master of the craft, Kalo employs honesty in conveying the rich layers of human life and the delicacy by which their various struggles paint the city of Jaffa in vibrant hues of sacrifice and redemption of the rarest kind.

Lili- a most memorable read, not to be missed!!

By Sigal Kushnir

The book portrays the fascinating story of a unique affinity between a true ascetic called Adon, and Lili, a young prostitute, who crosses his life through unexpected circumstances. Through this story one is familiarized with the heart captivating, humane landscapes of the city of Jaffa. This is a great, wonderful book for many reasons, the most significant reason for me, is the complete utmost love and compassion the author holds for his characters, devoid of any hypocritical moral judgment, whether it is a hopeless chronic drunk, a cold, cruel abusing pimp, a betrayed husband going through a violent fit, and a gallery of other human beings facing themselves and their weaknesses. Even when everyone of them meets his lowest degrading point in his life, one can not help but feel the compassionate forgiving eyes of the author, who watches and describes them, and always finds some kind of strong point of positivity and hope in them. The book is far from sugarcoating the lives described in it, especially the tough life and circumstances Lily was facing throughout the book. However, a pure strong core of loyalty, love, devotion, and great courage remains unharmed in her heart, and ends up finding its way, to where it has always belonged.

This book is recommended with all of my heart.

One of the most fascinating novels I have ever read. I recommend it whole-heartedly.

I got immediately swept away by Lili into an exciting plot full of suspense in the bizarre human landscapes of Jaffa not so long ago and into a pure love which is both wonderful and exceptional. I went deep into the fantastic characters, absorbed the special atmosphere of the book and its poignant social message. The point of view of the believer enlightened every page all along.

One of the most fascinating novels I have ever read. I recommend it whole-heartedly.

A novel of unconventional plot and characters. provoking thought and feelings.

By Sharona Goren

An innocent prostitute lands from a murky world of menace into a relationship with an ascetic of untainted purity. I love how this purity reigns throughout the suspenseful plot and from which point of view presents the dynamics of many different characters leading to unexpected conclusions.

This is a wonderful book, written in a sensitive yet realistic way. The depiction of the images is very human on the background of a multicolored city laden with abundance of human experiences as Jaffa.

I thoroughly enjoyed reading this book and warmly recommend it.
