PURSUIT BY LOUIS MCCARTER PDF

On the eve of her eighteenth birthday, Danielle Hoad's obsession to avenge her father's abandonment of her and her mother in Vietnam leads to the bizarre death of a United States senator's son in a posh New York City hotel room. Danielle did not intend for the man to die, but she must escape-and maybe she would someday find her father.

Relentlessly pursued by Julian Bono, a retired New York City detective, Danielle catapults down a twisted path of terror and romance from the Bronx slums to Louisiana's Gulf Coast to the college town of Austin, Texas, to Houston's uppercrust society where she is confronted with a decision that will forever alter her life.

PURSUIT

By Ted C. Litton

The author's own experiences have helped him produce an enjoyable experience for the reader...I literally couldn't put it down, ending in a 2 AM finish!

Loved it!

By Rose22

I really enjoyed this book, it was hard to put down. I think the author captured the wicked personality of the investigator as well as the sensitivity, sweetness and revenge of the young girl perfectly. Always amazes me for a male to write the thoughts and feelings that would go through a woman/girl's mind and do it well. Thanks Mr. McCarter for writing a wonderful book!

Excellent read

By TommyeT

I recently met the author and was given the book. I thought it was great - it really kept my interest and was very suspenseful. I think he should write another!
