Not Ready for Review

By Xanlthorpe

I tried, but there is no story here. There is a telling of facts, statements concerning the characters, but no story. Things just happen. There is no character development. This book really needed an editor. I returned it.

An amazing story right here. I really loved the fact that the best friend turned out to be the person he was meant to be with. And I absolutely loved the little girl. This story was really sweet. Excellent book!

HEART MELTING LOVE STORY

By Sue Allen Milkovich

This heart melting love story begins with Tyler becoming a father to Julie. He enlists the help of his best friend Jake. This was a beautifully written story about how two gay men are taught by a six year old there is more to life. This is a light and fun read that is very entertaining. The story moves quickly but at the same time is very well developed. I thought it was very funny with the interactions with Julie. This is a wonderful story. I highly recommend it!!
